Description

Red hot! The Carrera EVOLUTION Flames and Fame set guarantees a real racetrack battle. The protagonists in this duel are the Mercedes-AMG GT3 Evo 'Siniestro' I. Racing, No.75, with a striking flame print on the hood, and the sleek-looking KTM X-BOW GTX 'Marek Rybnicki', No.104, in a white, blue and red paint job. Marek Rybnicki has driven the car in hill races such as the Eco-Homo Sternbank.

Both cars are fitted with front and rear lights, and can be driven in beginner or advanced mode. Each car's speed can be adjusted to the driver's ability at any time. Both look great with their front and rear lights as they speed around the 3.3-meter racing circuit. Be the master of your control handset and show your opponents the way to the checkered flag!
