Description

In the mid-1950s Chevy® presented its new V-8 engine with overhead valves, which in general is called a "small block" Chevy®. Equip this car in the years '55 - '57 years are known as "Tri-Chevy". The 1957 is the most popular of all. The Bel Air® version was the top model with additional functions and fittings that provided a new look. The rear tail was a styling trend that celebrated the jet age.
