Description

This model recreates an original figure in the form of the Street Rider, a male figure in casual bike gear which is perfectly suited to display with models in the 1/12 series, particularly street bikes. It features a number of options with regard to helmet, pose and eyewear. Use this figure to create a little diorama from your favourite motorcycle masterpiece!

1/12 scale plastic model assembly kit

3D scanning techniques ensure finely molded figures with excellent detail including natural rendering of folds and creases on the clothing.

Parts included to make either of two different options: 1. The rider helmeted and pulling on his gloves, ready to mount the bike; or 2. The rider having just got off the bike, helmet in hand and with a beanie hat on his head.

Features parts to create either half or three-quarter helmet.

Optional sunglasses and helmet visor included.

Comes with a screw-fixed base for stable display.
